

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PREAMBLE.

Whereas, the all-wise Creator has endowed man with an immortal mind, and instructed him that its improvement and elevation is of far greater importance than the pursuit of the more fascinating pleasures of this world; and that the cultivation of those faculties by which our thoughts are communicated to others, is essential to our future success; and whereas, a union of effort for such objects has always proved to be of mutual advantage and success, when guided by a well directed and efficient government, Therefore,

We, the undersigned, for the attainment of the aforesaid objects, do associate ourselves together under the name of the "MISHAWUM LITERARY ASSOCIATION," and agree to be governed by the following By-Laws.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

MEMBERS.

SECTION 1. No person shall become a member of this Association, unless he is of good moral character, and above the age of fifteen years.

SECT. 2. Any person above the age of fifteen years, who shall sign the Preamble which precedes these By-Laws, and pay into the Treasury the sum of two dollars, may become a member of this Association, upon the recommendation of either member of the Prudential Committee, made in writing to the Treasurer.

SECT. 3. Every member shall be subject to an annual assessment of two dollars, payable in all cases in advance.

SECT. 4. If any member omits to pay his assessment, after being notified that it has become due, his right of membership shall be suspended until such time as he shall pay the same.

SECT. 5. Any person may be declared an Honorary Member of this Association, by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at any meeting, and shall then be entitled to all the rights and privileges of active members, save that of voting and eligibility to office.

SECT. 6. Ladies may become subscribers to the Library, by the payment in advance of the sum of one dollar per year; they shall be subject to the same restrictions and regulations, in taking books, as are the members of the Association.

ARTICLE II.

OFFICERS.

SECT. 1. The Officers of this Association shall consist of President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, (two) Librarians, Prudential Committee, Lecture Committee, Committee on Debate, and Committee on Declamations and Compositions.

SECT. 2. The term of office for all the Officers of this Association (except Librarian) shall be one year.

SECT. 3. The Officers (except Librarian) shall all be chosen by written ballot, and shall enter upon their duties as provided in Article 3.

SECT. 4. The Librarian shall be appointed by the Prudential Committee, and may continue in office so long as he shall give satisfaction to the Association; he shall receive such compensation for his services as the Association may determine.

ARTICLE III.

ELECTIONS.

SECT. 1. The annual Officers shall be chosen at the last regular meeting in May, and they shall enter upon their duties one week thereafter.

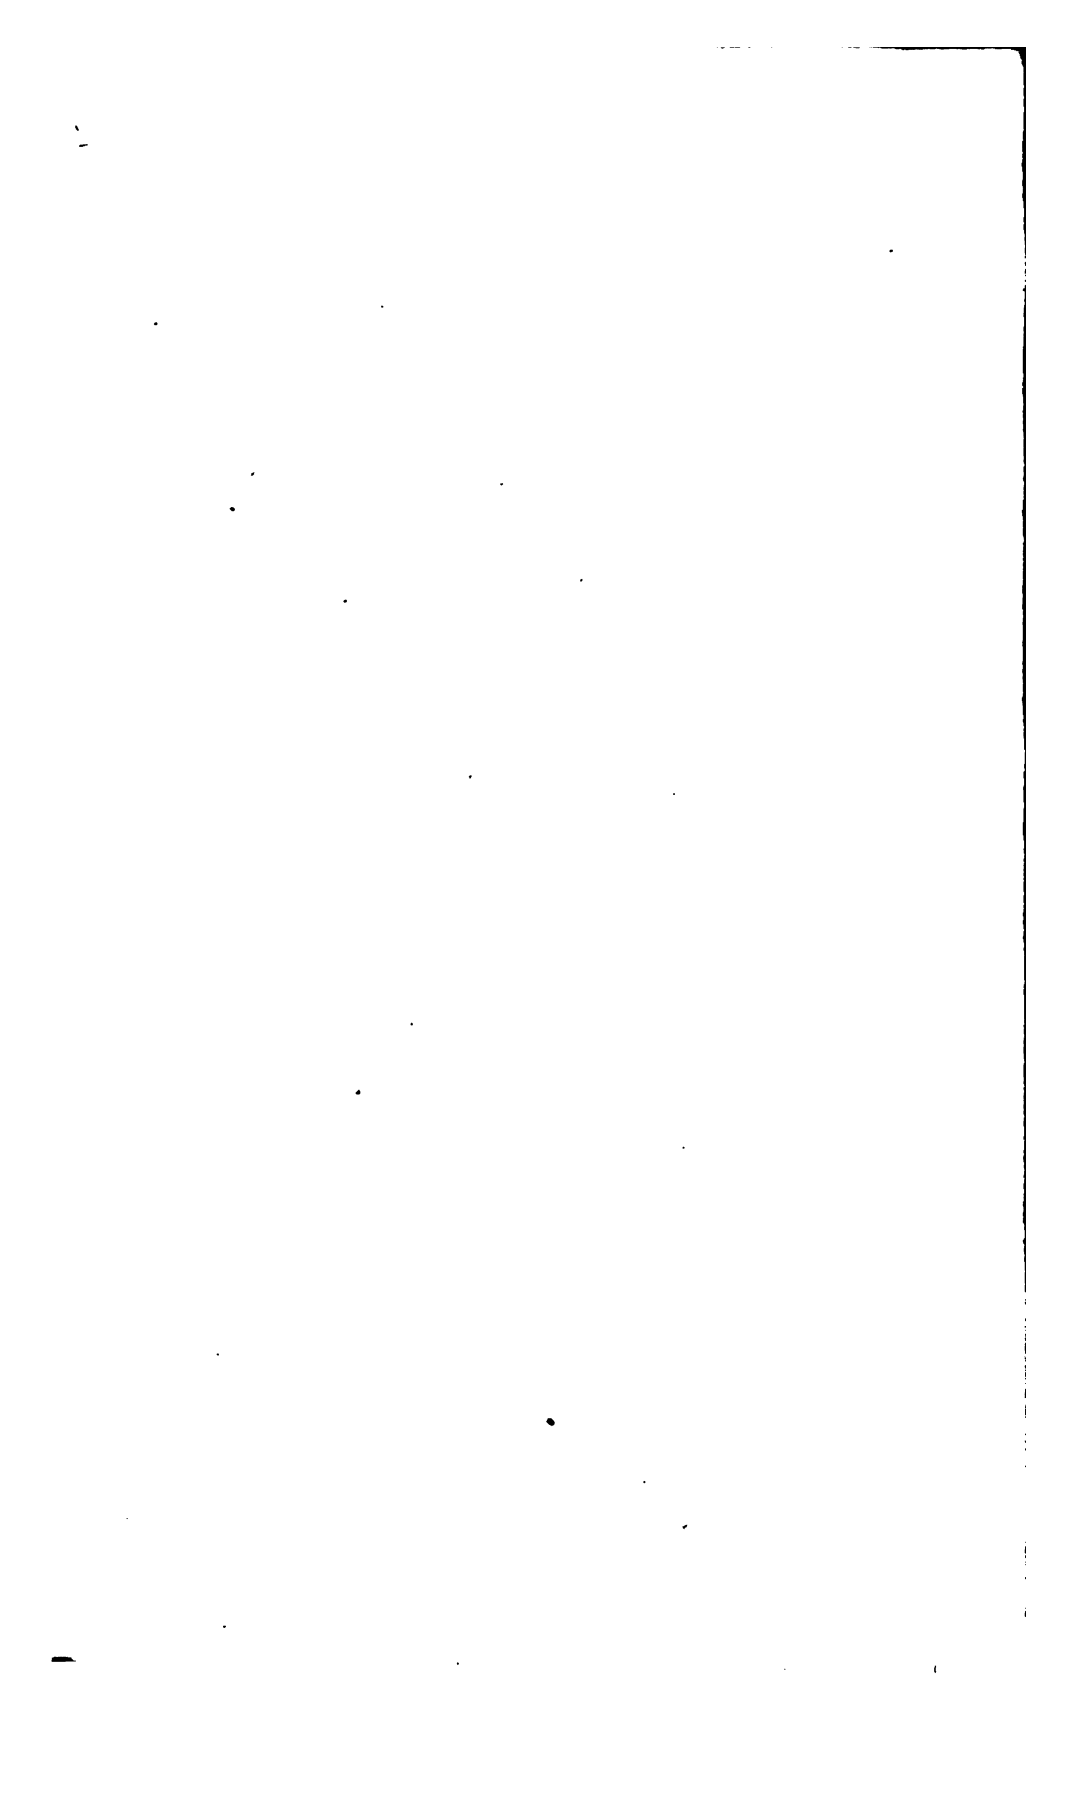

ARTICLE IV.

PRESIDENT.

SECT. 1. The President, when present, shall preside at all meetings of the Association, and in case of an equal division of the members upon any question, shall give the casting vote.

SECT. 2. The President shall be Chairman of the Prudential Committee, and shall have the same rights and privileges as the other members of that Committee.

ARTICLE V.

VICE PRESIDENT.

SECT. 1. The Vice President shall preside in the absence of the President, and perform all the duties of that office.

SECT. 2. The Vice President shall be a member of the Prudential Committee, and shall have the same rights and privileges as the other members of that Committee.

ARTICLE VI.

SECRETARY.

SECT. 1. The Secretary shall be the organ of the Association in its conference with other Societies and the public.

SECT. 2. He shall affix his name to all notices emanating from the Association ; he shall attend all meetings, and in the absence of the President and Vice President, shall call the same to order, and shall accurately and at large record the proceedings in the journal of the Association, which shall be deposited in the room, subject to the inspection of members.

ARTICLE VII.

TREASURER.

SECT. 1. The Treasurer shall hold all the funds of the Association.

SECT. 2. He shall pay no bills unless sanctioned by the President and Secretary ; he shall make a report of his receipts and disbursements at the last regular meeting in November, February and May.

SECT. 3. He shall give notice to members of their assessment becoming due, at least one week before the expiration thereof.

SECT. 4. He shall immediately give notice to the Association, of the omission or refusal of any member, to pay his assessment after it has become due. He shall keep a record of all recommendations for membership made by any member of the Prudential Committee, which record shall be open to the inspection of members.

ARTICLE. VIII.

LIBRARIAN.

SECT. 1. It shall be the duty of the Librarian to take charge of all books, papers, and periodicals, connected with the Room and Library, to keep a correct catalogue of the same, and an accurate account of all books delivered to the members and subscribers.

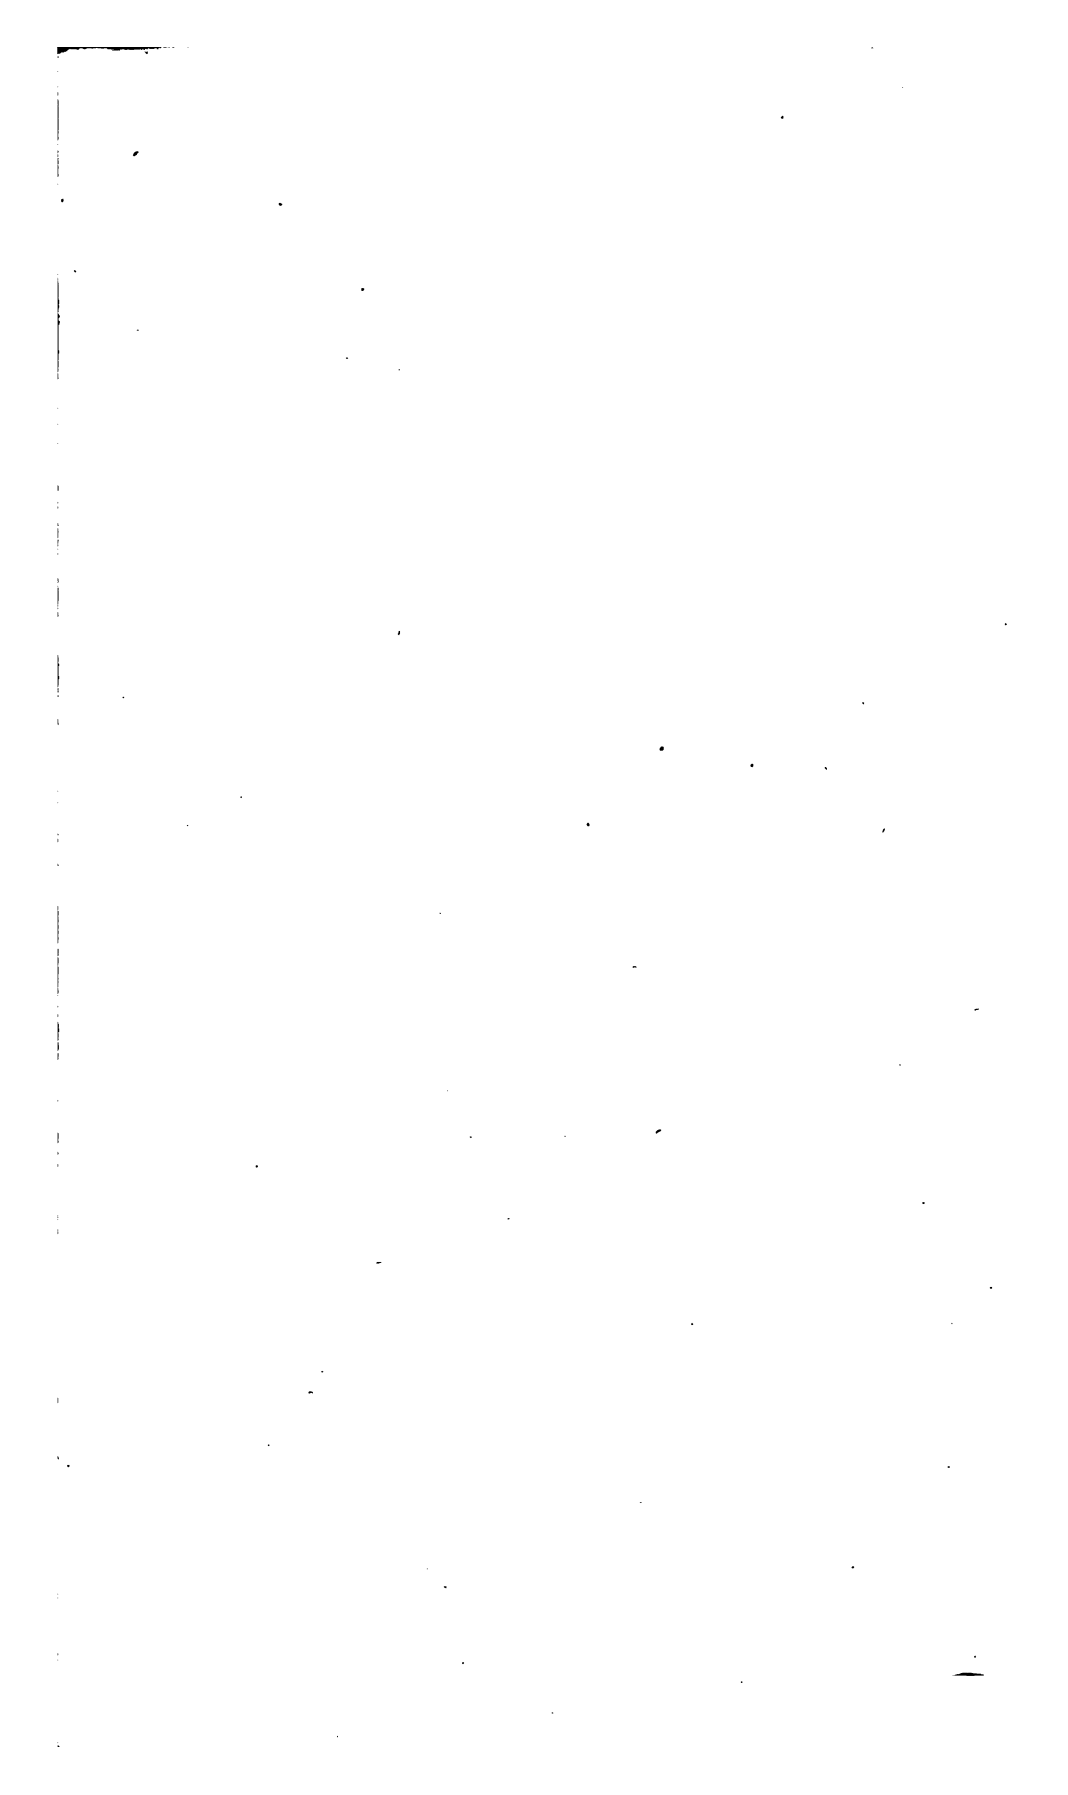

SECT. 2. He shall have power to receive subscriptions of Ladies who may wish to avail themselves of the privileges of the Library, but shall pass over to the Treasurer all monies thus received.

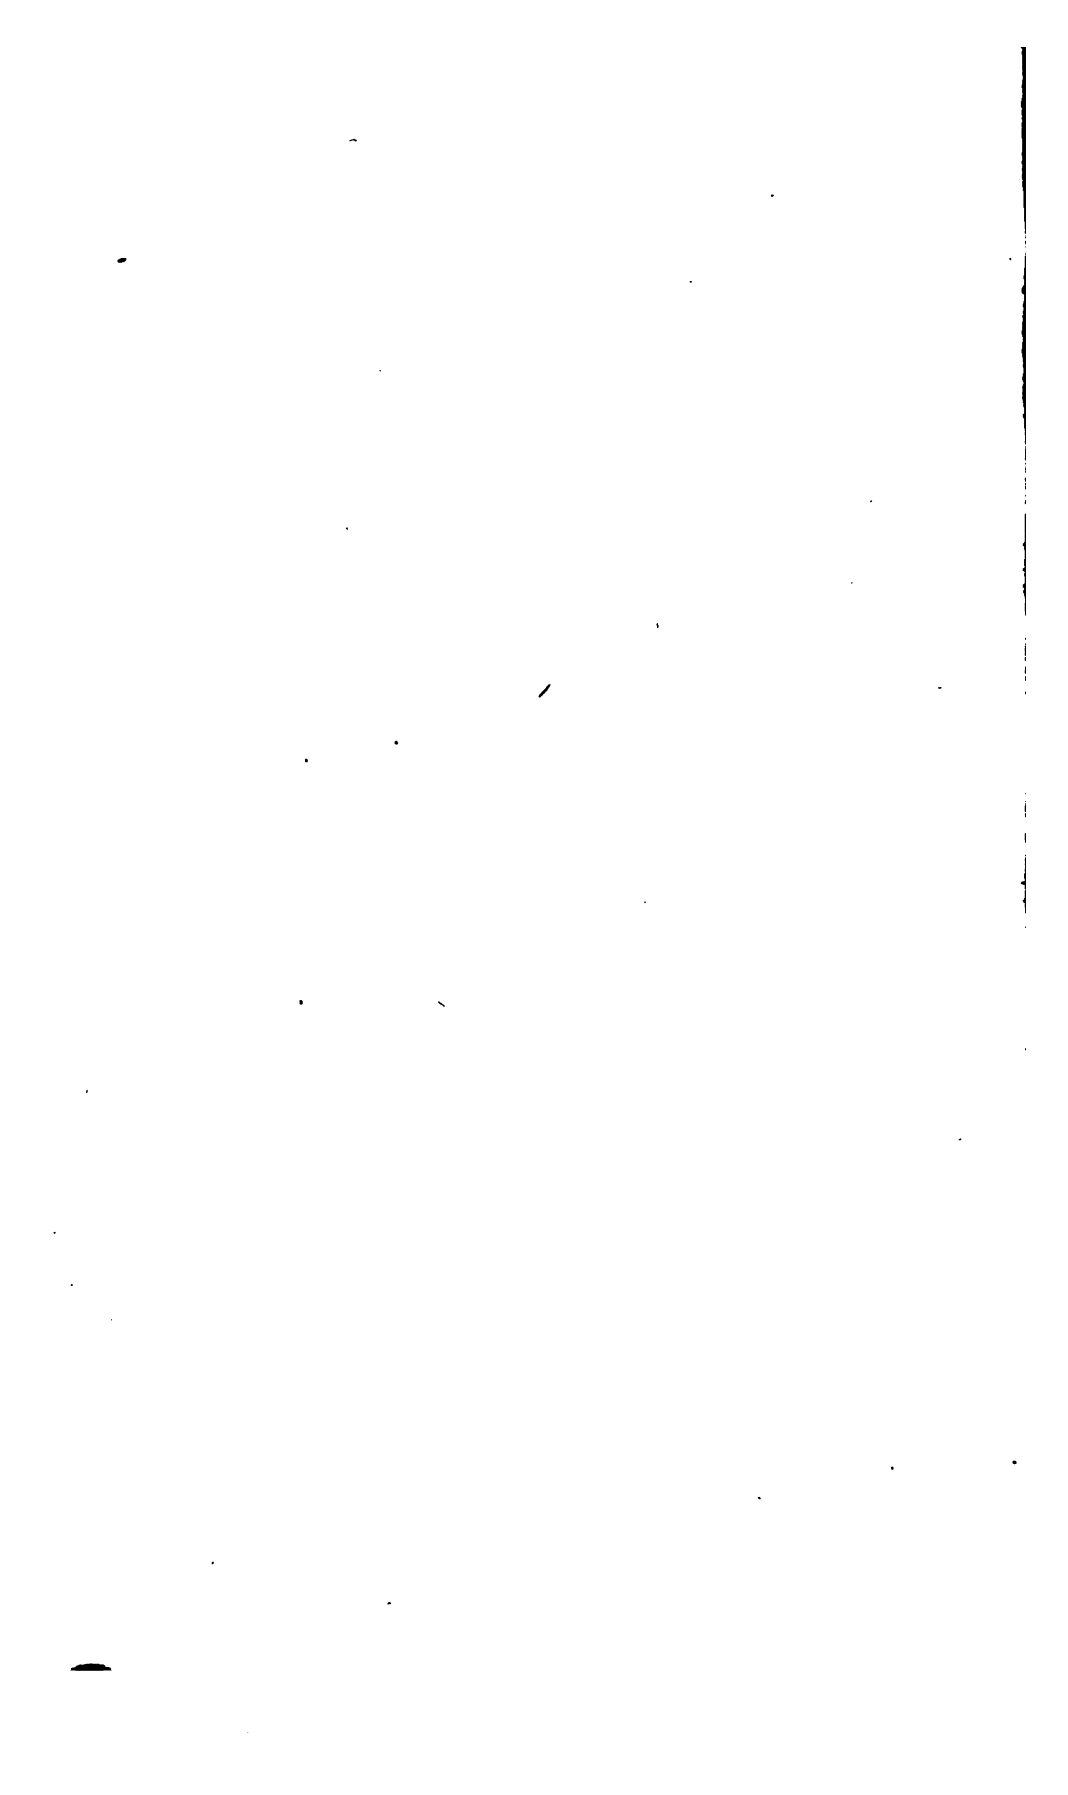

SECT. 3. He shall have power to appoint an Assistant, in case of his absence, and such assistant shall be subject to the same rules as is the Librarian.

ARTICLE IX.

PRUDENTIAL COMMITTEE.

SECT. 1. The Prudential Committee shall consist of five members, including the President and Vice President; they shall have the general supervision of the affairs of the Association, and shall transact such business as the Association shall, from time to time, refer to them, and they shall make a report of their proceedings at those meetings specified in Article 7, Section 2.

ARTICLE X.LECTURE COMMITTEE.

The Lecture Committee shall consist of three persons ; it shall be their duty to make all the arrangements necessary for the delivery of an annual course of Lectures, and they shall present a report of their proceedings at the first regular meeting in September, and another immediately after the close of the Lectures.

ARTICLE XI.COMMITTEE ON DEBATE.

The Committee on Debate shall consist of three members, and it shall be their duty to furnish questions for discussion ; each question, with the names of the members whom they shall obtain to open the Debates, being reported to the Association at least one week before the discussion takes place.

ARTICLE XII.COMMITTEE ON DECLAMATIONS AND COMPOSITIONS.

SECT. 1. The Committee on Declamations and Compositions shall consist of three members, and it shall be their duty to procure a sufficient number of members to take part in the exercises, and report their names to the Association one week before the time set apart for such exercises.

SECT. 2. They shall make all the necessary arrangements for such public exercises as the Association may choose to give.

ARTICLE XIII.MEETINGS.

SECT. 1. At all meetings of this Association, ten members shall constitute a quorum.

SECT. 2. The regular meetings of this Association shall be held on Monday evening of each week, during the months of January, February, March, April, May, September, October, November and December.

SECT. 3. The Literary Exercises of this Association shall be Declamation, Composition and Debate, and they shall take place in the following order, viz : — Declamation and Composition once in three weeks, commencing on the third Monday evening in September ; and Debate on the remaining Monday evenings in which meetings are held, excepting, however, when the election of the Officers takes place, or when the Association may deem it expedient to give public exercises ; and on such occasions none of the aforesaid exercises shall be in order.

SECT. 4. All business pertaining to the affairs of the Association, shall only be in order after the exercises.

SECT. 5. The President, Secretary, and five other members shall have power to call special meetings.

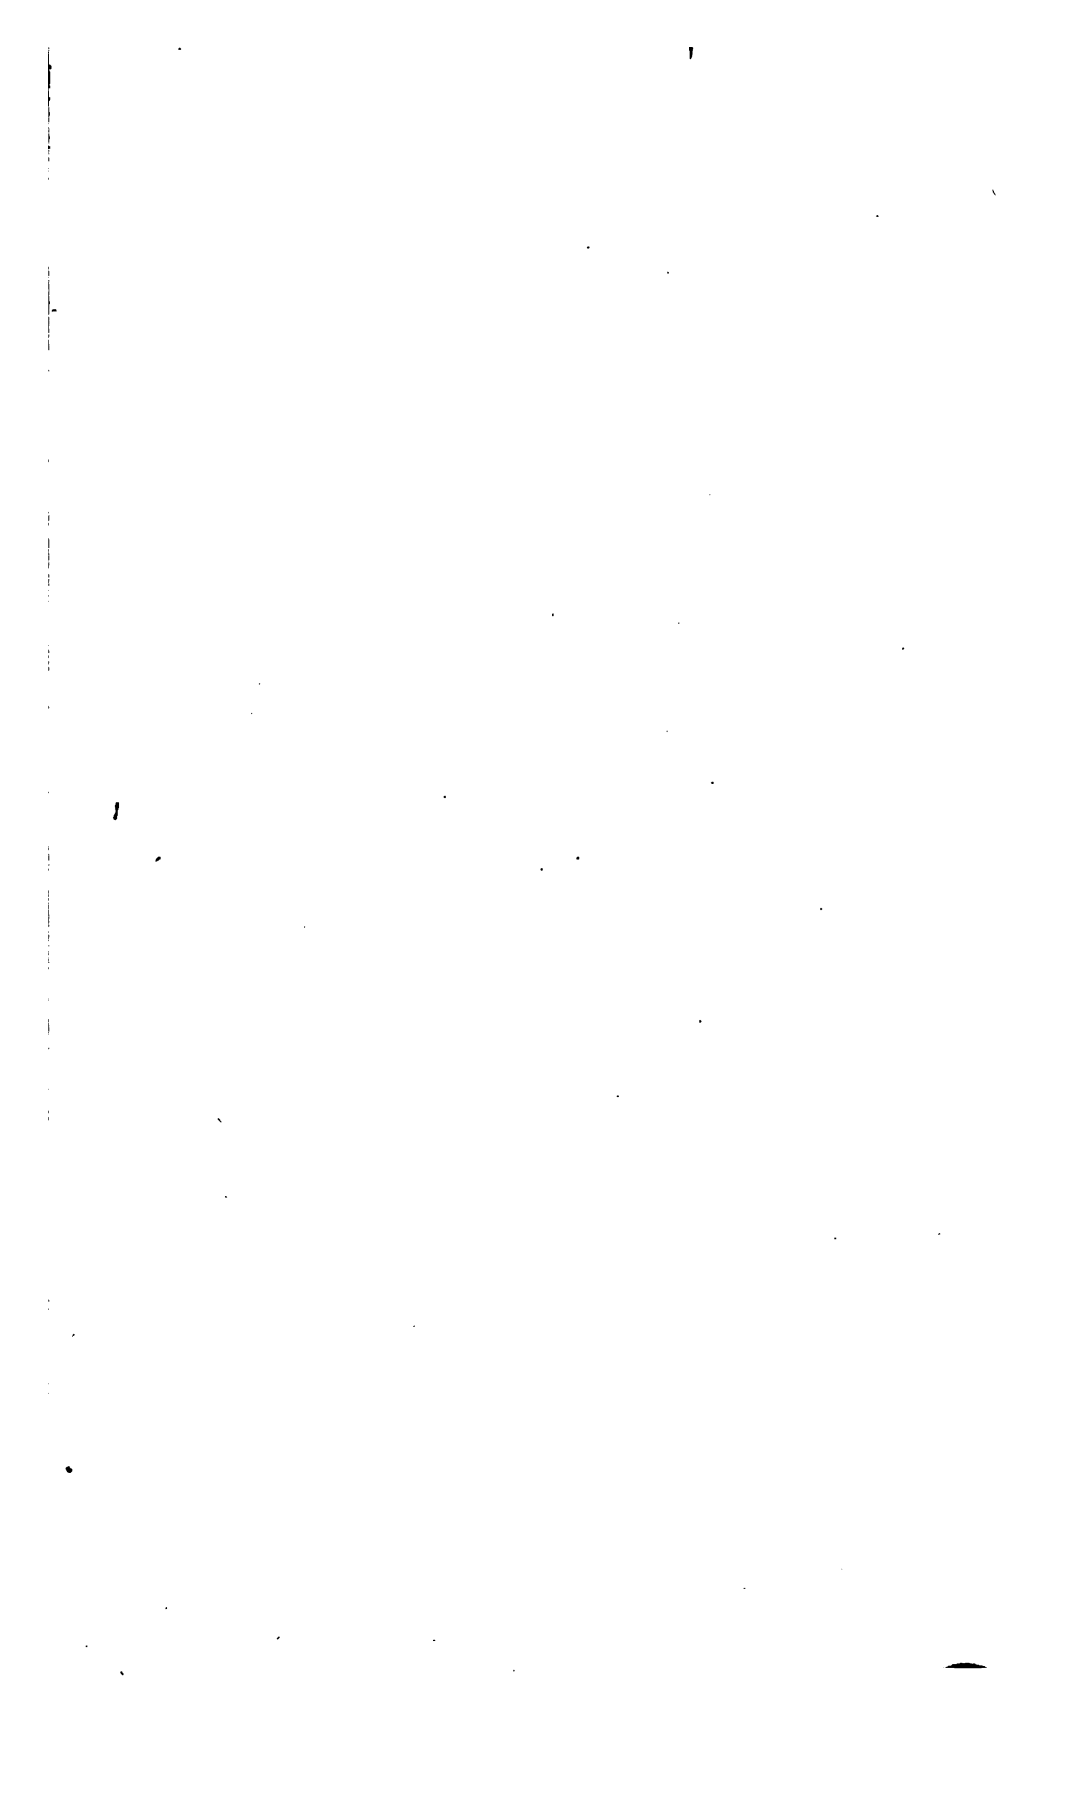

SECT. 6. If at any meeting of this Association, questions should arise which are not treated of in these By-Laws, they shall be decided by an appeal to "Cushing's Manual."

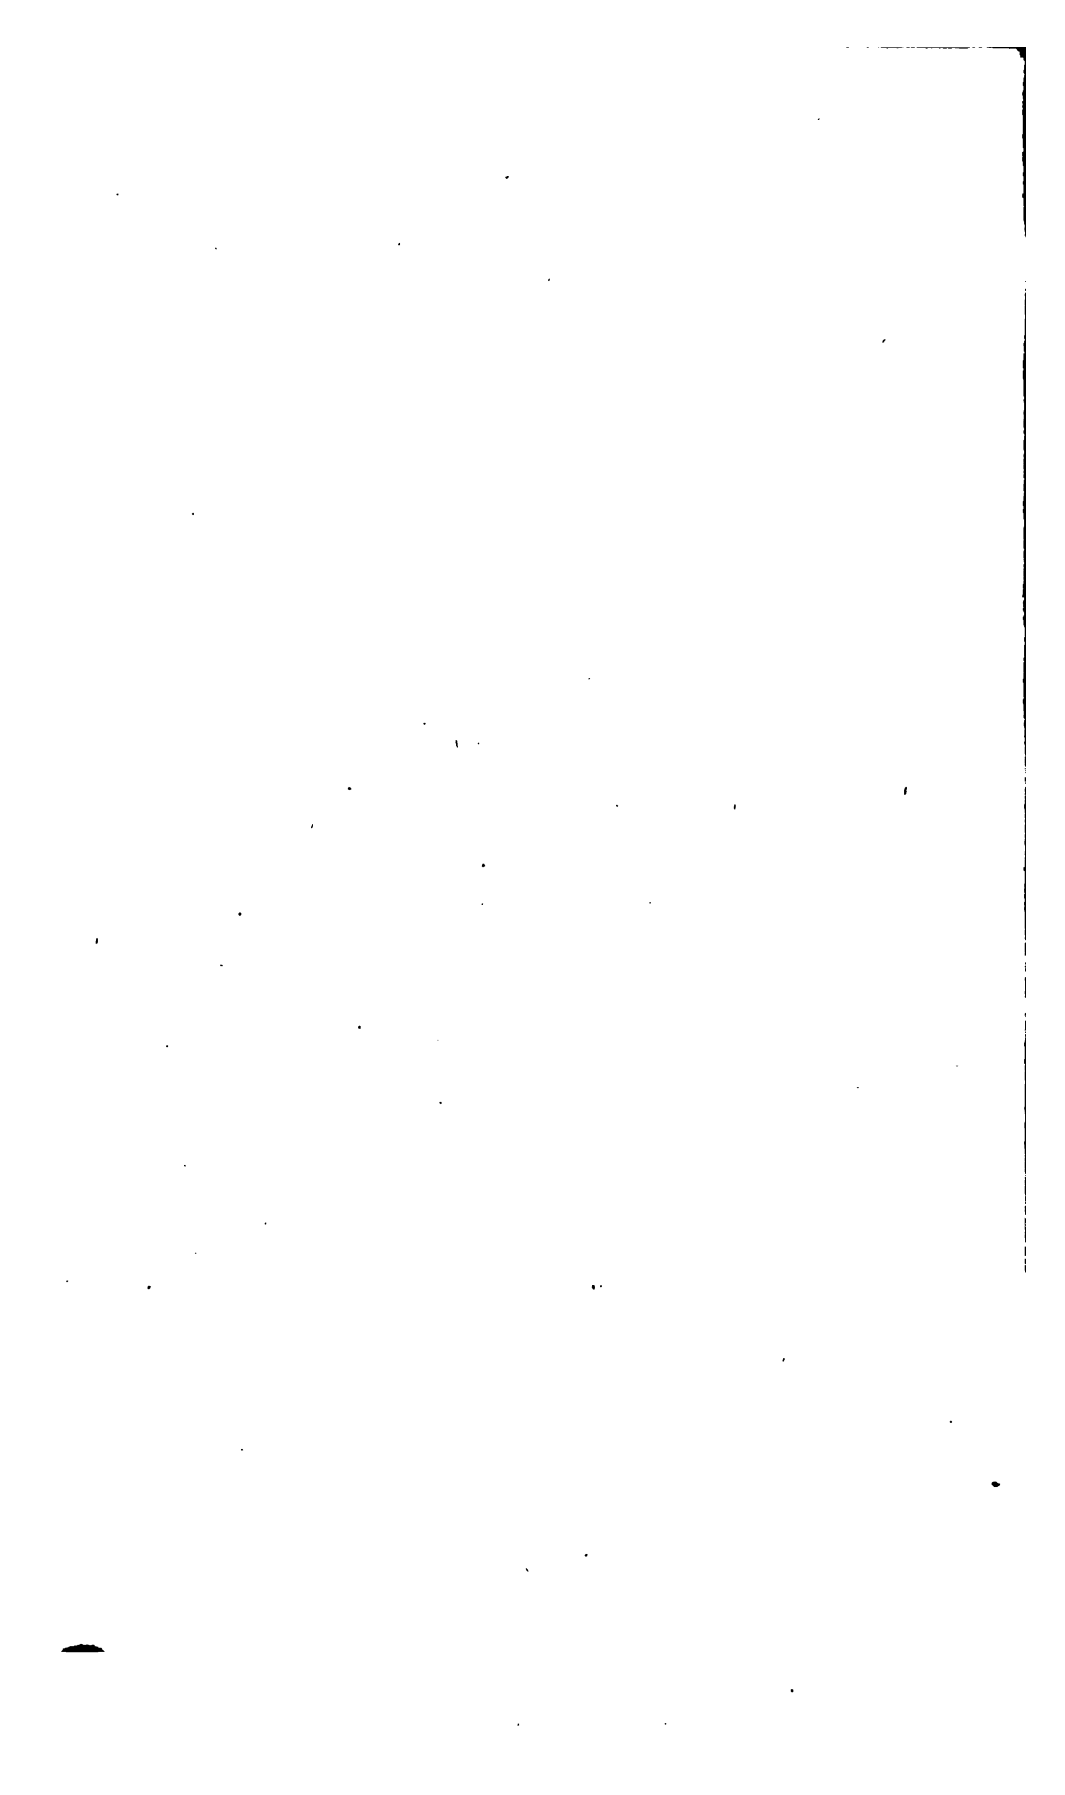

ARTICLE XIV.

LIBRARY.

SECT. 1. The Library shall be open for the delivery of books, on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons and evenings of each week throughout the year.

SECT. 2. A member, upon application to the Librarians, may take one volume from the room and retain the same two weeks, at the expiration of which time, an extension of one week shall be given, if desired, after which, there shall be no extension. Nor shall the same person again take the same volume, until it shall have remained upon the shelves one entire evening.

SECT. 3. The Prudential Committee shall have power to limit the time of retention of new books, during the first six months after their purchase, which time shall be conspicuously marked on the covers ; and they shall also have power to withhold from circulation, such volumes as may be injured thereby.

SECT. 4. If at the expiration of the time specified in Sections 2 and 3, for the retention of any book, the same is not returned, the sum of ten cents shall be imposed and demanded, for every week so retained ; and a retention of one day over the stipulated time, shall incur the same penalty.

SECT. 5. If any member shall refuse to pay the amount of any fine or fines which may be assessed him, his right to remove books from the Library shall be suspended until he complies with the requirements.

SECT. 6. If any member shall lose or deface a volume, he shall replace the same, or present an equivalent in money. If it be one of a set, he shall receive the odd volumes at a fair appraisal, or make an ample recompense.

SECT. 7. All books shall be returned for the annual examination, two weeks previous to the election in May.

SECT. 8. No member shall take out books on another's page, without a written order ; and if any books so taken are lost, the Librarians shall be held accountable therefor.

SECT. 9. No member shall have the liberty to transfer his right to take books from the Library, to a person not a member of the Association.

ARTICLE XV.

If any of the Officers of this Association shall neglect the performance of any of their duties, or shall not administer the laws of this Association efficiently and equitably, on written complaint of eight members, a Committee of three shall be chosen, by written ballot, at the same meeting on which the complaint is presented, who shall report and refer the subject to the members of the Association, and they shall censure the accused, remove from office, or fully exonerate, as the circumstances of the case may warrant.

ARTICLE XVI.

EXPULSION OF MEMBERS.

If any member shall wantonly create a disturbance at any meeting of the Association, or misrepresent its character abroad, or devise or take part in any measure designedly to injure the Association, or shall purposely deface the books, the room, or its appurtenances, on written complaint of six members, a Committee of three shall be immediately chosen by written ballot, who shall investigate the charges and report at a future meeting, when, if the same be made apparent, he shall be reprov'd, or deprived of his privileges of membership; always allowing the accused ample opportunity to excuse or extenuate his conduct.

ARTICLE XVII.

These By-Laws shall not be altered or amended except by the written votes of two-thirds of the members present at a meeting, notice of which must be given at least one week previous, in one or more newspapers of the city.
